

Mackinac Horseman's Association Presents:
 Adult Horseback Riding Clinic with Lisa Eckhardt
 Mondays starting August 1st - 10 am at the Mackinac Community Equestrian Center

We are pleased to again offer an Adult Beginner Riding Series. After all, why should the kids have all the fun?! These are beginner lessons with the goal of providing a basic foundation on horsemanship and riding. Space is limited so sign up early!

We are fortunate to have Lisa Eckhardt as our instructor. Lisa has been a summer resident on Mackinac Island for the past 8 summers and is an exceptional equine resource. She has experience in western pleasure, reining, working cow horse, English equitation, dressage and driving. Lisa has been training for over 20 years and she and her husband Don Eckhardt own and operate the Driving Training Center in Snohomish, Washington along with the boarding facility, French Creek Stables. Lisa and Don have successfully competed in the sport of Combined Driving in the US and Canada. She developed the French Creek Pony Club in Snohomish, WA and was the Joint District Commissioner for over 6 years. Lisa currently teaches balanced seat riding and dressage to an extensive client base and provides comprehensive equine training services.

August 1, 8, 15, 22 and 29th : The sessions will last approximately one hour and will cover horsemanship and riding basics. Horses will be provided by local horse owners. Please complete the initial paperwork and sign-up form prior to the first session. Please provide your email below so we can provide more information. Helmets are required and can be provided if needed. Long pants and heeled boots are recommended as well.
