

Mackinac Horseman's Association Presents:

August 1, August 8 & August 15, 2009

This summer, we are pleased to offer an Adult Beginner Riding Series. After all, why should the kids have all the fun?! The 3 lesson series is $60.00 and horses will be provided. These are beginner lessons with the goal of providing a basic foundation on horsemanship and riding. Space is limited so sign up early!

We are so very fortunate to have Lisa Eckhardt as our instructor. Lisa has been a summer resident on Mackinac Island for the past 6 summers and is an exceptional equine resource. She has experience in western pleasure, reining, working cow horse, English equitation, dressage and driving.

Lisa has been training for over 20 years and she and her husband Don Eckhardt own and operate the Driving Training Center in Snohomish, Washington along with the boarding facility, French Creek Stables. Lisa and Don have successfully competed in the sport of Combined Driving in the US and Canada. She developed the French Creek Pony Club in Snohomish, WA and was the Joint District Commissioner for over 6 years. Lisa currently teaches balanced seat riding and dressage to an extensive client base and provides comprehensive equine training services.

August 1, August 8 & August 15: The sessions will last approximately one hour and will cover horsemanship and riding basics. Horses will be provided by local horse owners.
